MOURNING DECORATIONS.

New York, Sept. 23.—The Sun says that the profuse mourning decorations of the city have been mainly decorous, but when folds of black and white are seductively twisted among wares in show windows, and toys on sale are dressed in habiliments of woe, and bottles of the barber are in like manner rigged up, and joints of the butcher similarly decked, the bounds of good taste are overstepped. From a rope across Hamilton street, near Catherine crossing, hangs an effigy which has caused throngs to gather to within a near distance of it since yesterday. On the breast is placed the inscription, "Guiteau—The Verdict the People Expect." The effigy of Guiteau which was hanged in Washington street boldly in daylight was cut down by the police yesterday and taken to the station.

WHITE RIVER TIES.
New York, Sept. 23.—The Herald's Rawlins, Wyoming, special says: Col. Moon and part of the 8th Infantry have arrived from their camp on White River, Colorado, and left on a special train for Salt Lake City. They report that the White River ties have all returned from the agency at the junction of White and Green rivers, Utah, where they were paid by the Ute commissioners, to their old haunts on White river, near Mill creek.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR.
Washington, Sept. 23.—President Arthur will not again leave Washington, except probably to visit New York for a day, until the meeting of the Senate. There is a great press of purely routine business awaiting his action. There are important appointments to be made in the army and navy, especially of vacancies on the retired list of the former, and several in the latter service. A vacancy on the Supreme bench is an urgent case for executive action.

HUMBLE NEWSPAPER MEN REMEMBERED.
Washington, Sept. 23.—The B. & O. railroad officers have telegraphed to-day that they will put a special train with sleeping car at the service of newspaper men going to Cleveland, and get there an hour ahead of the funeral train without charge.

Floral ornaments sent to the Capitol were grandly beautiful.

There is scarcely anything in the face of the dead President to recall that many, kindly countenance which was so familiar to people here. His long suffering reduced him to a skeleton. With skin discolored and tightly drawn. Many who admired him in life regretted that they looked at his corpse.

GUITEAU'S TROUBLED CONSCIENCE.
Washington, Sept. 23.—Guiteau evidently does not dread his trial half so much as the vengeance of the populace. He has fretted himself sick in apprehension of mob violence. He has been put on sick diet by the jail physician, and asks the guards and warden every time he sees them, day or night, whether there is any indication of purpose to attack the jail, and if so to take him out at once. He seems to entertain some hope of escape with a light penalty if he can escape popular indignation.

A LEGAL POINT RAISED.
In regard to Mason a legal point will be made that will be raised in defense. It is that with the position Guiteau occupied in his cell when Mason fired it was impossible for him to have been injured by the shot, therefore it was impossible for Mason to have carried out his intent to kill him; that it is not sufficient for the accused to have the intent to commit the offense, but it requires, in order to constitute a crime and secure conviction, that crime was possible of execution by Mason. In illustration of this point lawyers for the defense say: "Suppose Mason's musket had not been loaded, though he had supposed it to be, and pulled the trigger."

THE BALL, NOT THE CAUSE OF DEATH.
New York, September 23.—Dr. Hamilton who attended the late President, yesterday dictated to a Tribune reporter a few general facts anticipatory of the detailed accounts of the autopsy soon to be issued. Referring to the ball he said the presence of the ball in the situation in which it was found was not the immediate cause of death, as it was completely encased, and must have long since ceased to cause trouble. Small fragments of the bone and the great lesion of the lumbar vertebrae are the pathological facts which alone could endanger life. This lesion of vertebrae the surgeons had no means of repairing nor could it have been repaired save by the process of nature. The small fragments of bone widely disseminated in adjacent tissues certainly could not have been removed by any surgical operation. It was determined by autopsy that the necessity did not exist for removing the ball, or in other words, that had there been no other lesion it might have been carried for many years without causing death or even inconvenience. There were no possible means of knowing the situation of the ball during life, as it gave no indications of its presence, nor could it possibly have been reached, and recognized by any form of surgical probing. That death would have been the immediate and inevitable result of any such daring adventure is almost absolutely certain. I cannot believe that one intelligent surgeon will hereafter think that in any period of the progress of the case, the ball or any fragments of bone which it sent before it could be successfully removed, nor any serious attempt in that direction would not result in speedy death, viewing the case in the light of our present knowledge. I am prepared to affirm surgery has no resources by which fatal result could have been avoided.

FUNERAL CEREMONIES OF THE LATE PRESIDENT.

Washington, September 23.—The funeral ceremonies were concluded about 4 p. m. when the casket was at once removed to the hearse in waiting at the east front of the Capitol. A few minutes later the procession marched through the military escort preceding the hearse, which was followed by a long line of carriages, two abreast. The military marched up the avenue to the depot and dispersed, and the casket was taken at once to the train in waiting at the B. & P. depot. The side-walks of the avenue and at intersecting street corners thronged thousands of spectators. The funeral train left Washington at 5:15 p. m. and Baltimore at 6:45.

EFFORTS TO ACCOMMODATE THE CROWD.
Cleveland, Sept. 23.—Workmen are using electric and calcium lights to work nights and complete the labors on the catafalque, and other arrangements for the funeral. Already the city is overcrowded, and citizens are throwing open their doors in the effort to accommodate the immense crowds. It is feared half cannot be housed or fed. All sorts of shifts are resorted to.

James A. Garfield left Washington this afternoon for Cleveland, accompanied by five students, including Don Rockwell, who will reach Cleveland tomorrow morning.

IN HONOR OF THE DEAD.
Liverpool, Sept. 23.—The cotton-market closes Monday, on account of the funeral of Garfield.

GARFIELD'S DEATH A NATIONAL CALAMITY.
Mexico, Sept. 23.—A meeting of one hundred and fifty Americans took place at the U. S. Legation, and resolutions passed deploring the death of President Garfield as a national calamity, and denouncing his murderer as a blot on humanity, and reaffirming faith in the free institutions of the United States.

HOW THE ROBBERS WORKED IT.
Little Rock, Ark., September 23.—Conductor Whiteside tells a circumstantial story regarding the train robbery. They paid fare some distance ahead. After some conversation, and when the conductor passed on they drank from a bottle and following him, he demanded his money. He thought it a joke of drunken men, but found his mistake very soon, and handed out $15 in silver, saving the bills by saying he had none. They took money from him in front of them and then walked him in front of them and took money from the passengers, occasionally giving back three or four dollars to the victims. They robbed 10 or 15 passengers, then manacled the conductor into the Pullman car, then back through the train to the express and baggage cars, and with pistols at his head compelled the express messenger, Ben Sair, to open the safe, which they rifled, and then getting off fired several shots at the engineer to expedite him. It is not believed they and confederates were on the train. The robbery occurred about 10 o'clock p. m. Their total plunder from the express company and passengers was about $18,000. This afternoon the railroad company agreed to pay $5,000 reward, and the State $500 each for the arrest and conviction of the robbers. Total, $16,500. Armed parties are scouring the country in all directions. The robbers will hardly escape.

HARRISBURG, Pa., September 23.—The funeral train passed at 9:18.

LOSS OF LIFE BY A FALLING BUILDING.
Denver, Sept. 23.—At half past 7 this evening the side wall of a two-story brick building at No. 243, 15th street, the property of Mrs. Amelia Fisher, fell in, burying two men in the debris. The first floor of the building was occupied by a saloon, and six or seven men were in the place at the time the building fell, but all escaped except Edward Morgan and Isaac McCormick. Morgan was extricated shortly after the building fell. He was semi-unconscious from suffocation, but although buried with several feet of brick upon him, he was unhurt, save a few slight cuts and bruises. McCormick was instantly killed, and his body not recovered until 1 o'clock. He is a well known fifty-niner, and was at one time very wealthy. The walls of the building were extremely weak. The immediate cause of the disaster is said to be digging a ditch for sewers in an adjoining alley. Loss on building and contents, from six to eight thousand dollars.

STAGE ROBBER SENTENCED.
Pueblo, Sept. 23.—Ham White, alias Burton, notorious stage robber, was sentenced to life imprisonment to-day for robbing mails.

Washington, Sept. 23.—It is reported that a proclamation is in course of preparation and will shortly be issued. The tenor of it is not stated. The following dispatch has been sent by the State Department to the Governors of the different states and territories: "You are respectfully invited to be present at the funeral ceremonies of the late President James A. Garfield, at Cleveland, Monday, September 26, 2 p. m. [Signed] JAMES G. BLAINE."

Washington, Sept. 22, 10:30 a. m.—The remains of President Garfield, up to this hour, have been viewed by over 25,000 persons.

During the entire night a steady stream of humanity poured through the Capitol building, to take a last look. From 5,000 to 8,000 people are in two lines, from the east to the front of the Capitol, and for a long distance up Capitol street, and are passing through the east door of the rotunda, one on either side of the remains, and out through the west door at the rate of about 4,000 an hour. Among those who took a last look at the face of the dead President this morning were a number of Sisters of Charity and several hundred Catholic orphans from St. Vincent's and St. Joseph's Orphan Asylums. Many persons from Baltimore and Philadelphia arrived to view the remains.

London, September 22.—London Stock exchange will close at one o'clock Monday, in respect for the memory of the late President Garfield. The American Department will be closed all day.

Williamstown, Sept. 22.—James Garfield, son of the late President, is greatly improved and will leave for Cleveland tomorrow.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Garfield, with Mollie and Harry, visited the White House this morning to arrange for the removal of personal effects, and she exhibited signs of deep emotion upon entering familiar rooms, and her eyes were suffused with tears which she made brave efforts to restrain.

THE RELIEF FUND.
New York, Sept. 23.—The Michigan relief funds amount to $68,532.
New York, Sept. 23.—Garfield fund, $287,514.

Mr. Cavanaugh has the contract for the masonry, and Mr. Ward the contract for the carpenter work. The plate glass and iron cornice will be ordered directly from the East.

There has been a jim crow piano tuner in town in the past two weeks. It seems that he has put every piano in town out of tune, for Marcellino & Boffa have had more applications from citizens of this place to have pianos tuned in the past few days than in the last six months. The above gentlemen do not care if this man comes around once or twice a year.

The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and accepted Masons of the Territory of New Mexico will be convened at Albuquerque on the 4th of October next, for the purpose of laying the corner stone of a Masonic temple to be erected at Albuquerque by Temple Lodge No. 6. Grand Master S. B. Newcomb, of Las Cruces, will officiate, and a full attendance of members of the Grand Lodge from Santa Fe, Las Vegas, and other places in the Territory is expected.

An unfortunate shooting scrape occurred night before last in a saloon on the East Side, in which James W. Hinchcliff, a compositor on the GAZETTE and Frank Sturges, a bar-keeper at the Palace saloon, were both seriously shot. The difficulty began, as we are informed, between Archer Talbot and James Hinchcliff, and in their efforts to shoot each other, Sturges was accidentally shot. It is not at all improbable that both of these young men are fatally wounded and that in the near future their deaths may add two more to the list of victims to the folly of carrying and indiscriminately using deadly weapons.

One gentleman whom we met yesterday, in speaking of the attack of certain lawyers on Judge Prince, said: "This whole thing is best illustrated by a little story that used to be current of old Judge Grover. He was a noted character in his day, and a final was a Judge of the Court of Appeals in New York. While he was Circuit Judge a friend one day came to visit him and said, 'Judge, I heard a lawyer abusing you terribly down at the hotel.' 'Well, said the old Judge, 'I've always noted that when a lawyer gets beaten in a case and feels mad about it, he does one of two things. He either takes an appeal as the law directs, or else he goes down to the corner grocery and swears at the Judge. If his case is a very bad one he generally does the last.'"
